

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

JANUARY 2, 1818.

Agreeably to notice given, Mr. Sanford asked and obtained leave to bring in the following resolution, which was twice read by unanimous consent and committed:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the journal of the convention, which formed the present Constitution of the United States, now remaining in the office of the Secretary of State, and all acts and proceedings of that convention, which are in the possession of the government of the United States, be published under the direction of the Department of State.
